All elective surgery ended at 5 p.m. Friday, and ambulances and many doctors and workers were delayed en route to the hospital, but "nobody suffered because of it," according to Cooke.

Some Day

Dr. Edward Gilbert, superintendent of High School District 214, could not be located for an interview.

Dr. Gilbert was, of course, the departure of three of his faculty members to William Rainey Harper Junior College opened a subject for conversation. Gilbert is a pleasant man, all in all.

"I can't say I am overjoyed," he said, "but I am pleased. We have to lose them people but at the same time we are glad they have an opportunity to serve the same area we serve."

The Junior college is starting to fill positions on its staff and some of the high schools are going to feel an added pinch in the already straitened financial situation. Gilbert's task is a heavy one.

Last fall Elk Grove High School had to be staffed with 71 faculty members. This was in addition to the normal 15. It is not clear how much is expected at the other three high schools, however. Prospect and Wheeling.

And next year Gilbert faces the arrival of John Harvey Bickmeyer High School and another 60 new staff members.

Every year there are about 2,000 applications to positions in the district and as many as 400 or 500 may result in interviews. Last fall the district hired 170 new teachers and staff members.

Interviews are no simple matter. Selvidy is the business administrator, the personnel director and department heads meet with prospective applicants.

Vantage Point

Eighty per cent chance of rain today," the radio weather man said Thursday morning as we headed up Route 13 to a cold 17-miles-a-hour through what can only be described as a blinding blizzard.

We did not get back home until late Saturday afternoon.

The storm we could write about three days would fill several columns — and still probably not catch the feelings of those that the big snow generated.

First, a salute to the village officials of Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights who worked straight through the storm, taking only momentary breaks for coffee and a little rest.

In Mount Prospect, the plowing equipment never stopped. When one crew came in, cold and weary, another went out with the same truck, keeping the equipment rolling.

Members of the Mount Prospect fire department volunteered to go to work in the public works department during the crisis.

Mayor Daniel Comptre and several of the village trustees mounted plows late Thursday night and throughout the day Friday.

By LATE Friday night, Arlington Heights was clear.

enough for people to get to work and school, and for food supplies. The destruction was limited. Streets were blocked, and even plowing herds were kept from their usual routes.

PROSPECT Heights was one of the last major areas of Wheeling and Elk Grove towns.

Many Prospect Heights residents were moved in for safety of their homes and property.

The storm proved one thing to us. In times of major disaster, the more people we have, the more we need. It is not a matter of having too many, but of having the right people in the right places.

There are a lot of stories to tell about the storm — about the way that people came together and did their best to get through it.

WE WERE disappointed that Friday's paper did not get on the street. Disappointed because the news staff of both The Arlington and Prospect Days worked through the night to get the storm report ready for Friday's edition.

But the snow was just as much a disappointment.

There are, however, and today we can see where we left off — with the best news coverage of the blizzard since possible.

We were not alone in using a paper. The Chicago metropolitan edition got the news, however, and today we can see where we left off — with the best news coverage of the blizzard since possible.

Sunday's paper made it in the afternoon, but not to all the homes and from what we have been able to ascertain all grabbed by the news being so heavy.

Some Day

It does not seem like more than a year ago that we had, that month with Thomas Haden, Arlington Heights, other towns, at the program announcing the birth of The Arlington Day.

"What are you going to write about?" Haden asked that day. And he remembers we went back to the office and reported that Haden was planning to wash walls for his wife that afternoon.

Things picked up since that happen, and the domestic affairs of our community have been neglected. Haden had to wait some time. He complained about the garbage service and more recently he started another campaign to secure new newspapers.

That Haden and The Day could have done without the town, which undoubtedly was the biggest story of the year, Haden and his father treated me just struggling to pay their

The Progress Day ended the busy during the year and it was most unexpected that problem in the northwest, which was just what the same time, which undoubtedly was the biggest story of the year, Haden and his father treated me just struggling to pay their is reason to determine to do better in the year ahead.

A daily newspaper does have a place in a nation. It is the news in brief, Mr. Haden. It is the news in brief, Mr. Haden. It is the news in brief, Mr. Haden. It is the news in brief, Mr. Haden.

"Hey, boss—how about a 6 per cent 'SUR-raise'?"

Vantage Point

"It has been a very good year," that's what the popular song lyrics say and we will agree, to extend the record, it has indeed been a "very good year."

It seems like yesterday that we were in the area, full of ambition and desire and dedication, ready to take on the world's daily newspaper in the nation.

We still have the dedication and desire and dedication to take on the world's daily newspaper in the nation.

The year has been an interesting one. We have made our friends, and new ones, and we have made our friends, and new ones, and we have made our friends, and new ones.

The year has been an interesting one. We have made our friends, and new ones, and we have made our friends, and new ones, and we have made our friends, and new ones.

We have had our triumphs in the towns that asked the area, this summer, and floods that plagued Mount Prospect during the latter part of the summer.

WHEN THE Arlington Day published its first issue, just one year today, its big message was, "We're with you."

We think that the newspaper's job is to provide a daily paper on local news.

We have found that our problem, rather than our triumph, is to provide a daily paper on local news.

We have found that our problem, rather than our triumph, is to provide a daily paper on local news.

that we have involved from our readers make the year of 60 and 70 hour weeks and workweeks.

It has been hard work. There's nothing easy about the newspaper business, but there is no business that provides more satisfaction.

One thing about a newspaper is that it is a business that provides more satisfaction.

One thing about a newspaper is that it is a business that provides more satisfaction.

One thing about a newspaper is that it is a business that provides more satisfaction.

Our second choice would have to be the upward trend in the local population. The year of 60 and 70 hour weeks and workweeks.

It has been hard work. There's nothing easy about the newspaper business, but there is no business that provides more satisfaction.

One thing about a newspaper is that it is a business that provides more satisfaction.

One thing about a newspaper is that it is a business that provides more satisfaction.

One thing about a newspaper is that it is a business that provides more satisfaction.

... by Jack Vandermyn

From today, to being another five more months again is significant.

It was not before, "It's been a very good year."

As Day Publications, Inc. marks its first anniversary as a servant of the Northwest Suburban Community, it is fitting also to welcome to the community its new service organization.

The Arlington Heights Optimists Club of Arlington Heights yesterday was officially organized after several months of pre-clubbing activities.

A major mass service organization of more than 2,400 clubs and 85,000 members across the nation and in Canada, Optimist International has been in existence for more than 30 years. Its motto is, "Friend of the Boy," but its programs are more geared toward youth work alone.

The objectives of the international organization and the local club are to develop optimism as a philosophy of life; to promote an active interest in government and civic affairs; to inspire respect for law; to promote patriotism and to work for international accord and understanding among all people; to aid and encourage the development of youth.

The Arlington Heights club, which is open to members of that village and the community surrounding it, hopes to carry out these objectives at the local level through projects and activities which will provide individual members with an opportunity to serve the community personally.

While fellowship, a social outlet, and self-improvement are all part of the club's goal as a member of the club, the primary reason for joining the organization is to participate in an active force for the improvement of the community and its youth.

The Day releases this lofty goal, and adds to it the desire of welcoming organizations the club is receiving open to the public by publishing the Optimist Club, to which each member subscribes.

PROMISE YOURSELF
-To be as strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
-To talk health, happiness, and prosperity to every person you meet.
-To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.
-To look at the sunny side of everything; to give your optimism a chance to live.
-To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and to expect only the best.
-To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
-To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
-To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
-To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
-To be too busy looking for twenty-two hours for anger, too busy for worry, too busy for the pursuit of pleasure.

The Realtors Who Advocate On These Pages Stand Ready To Serve You!

BE SURE...

When you are buying or selling real estate, a good way to be sure that you are doing the right thing is to consult your Realtor.

Are you planning to buy or sell real estate? If so, here's the most important fact you should know before making any kind of real estate transaction. It's this: that every real estate man or woman is a Realtor! You see, Realtors are professional real estate men and women who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors. These men and women also subscribe to the professional standards of an established code of ethics. What does this mean to you? It means that when you call a Realtor, you are able to get your property sold or your real estate to be sold in the shortest possible time. When you buy a Realtor is able to find property for you. A Realtor is ready and willing to put his education and vast experience to work in the interest of your service. Visit or phone him.

A Realtor is not "just another real estate man." He is a member of the local, state and national boards and of the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Only by this affiliation is he permitted to use the designation, REALTOR.

Prize Winning Beauty on Wheels

BY BRUCE CUTLER

Take a dream. Surround it with ideas, hard work and a lot of money. That's the way an international championship is won.

At last, that's the hope of Marty Hahfeld, 23, of 302 S. Harvard, Arlington Heights.

What he is aiming for is the international championship of the American Rod and Custom show.

And he'll win on his way to winning the coveted title.

Marty's custom work was named last year the National Champion Rod at a Labor Day exhibit in Indianapolis.

And at four when Rod and Custom shows he has placed first in competition with hot rods and custom cars made from all over the country.

AND VICTORIES in Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Louis and Grand Rapids exhibits raised to nine the number of trophies he has won with his own, "X-Tec-C."

"I gave the car this name because I wanted to indicate it is an experimental, model 'I' standard custom work," Marty explains.

He keeps the car in his father's garage at 215 W. Palis, the Hahfelds, Arlington Heights. His father, Martin, shared the work load equally. Marty maintains.

A side view shows X-Tec-C's award winning beauty. Using the garden hose on car wall behind the car, Marty Hahfeld keeps his prize car spotless.

customer and painted with a "brush" substance and hand-painted gold work which black cobwebbing was added.

The appearance of X-Tec-C have gained Marty awards for the best paint job on a custom car and for most outstanding use of color.

sped at 130-140 miles an hour. Perfect to the car looks, one thing is missing. X-Tec-C has no license plate.

"It could pass any safety test," Marty explains. "but I think it shows a car has to have looks and a head and things like that."

The inside of the car was up-holstered in Miami City, Iowa, and Marty has one trophy for the best interior as well as another for the best X-Tec-C "most popular."

THE AUTO sports a 1959 Chrysler Imperial engine with six two-barrel carburetors, a 1959 Dodge transmission and a 1957 Chevrolet differential.

The engine - all brass - was specially made and dual-brakes were installed. The suspension was built by hand.

Marty made the frame himself, using 2 by 2 inch steel tubing. The whole auto was designed, built by Arlington Heights, Ill. in 1964.

Never has Marty sat in the driver's seat and let X-Tec-C rip on the highway.

"I'M ALMOST afraid how fast it could go," he says, adding that he estimates its top speed at 140 miles an hour.

"I got the basic idea from reading magazines about custom cars and going to shows ever since my early teens," Marty says.

"This is the first car I've built, though. My father and I just started from scratch and built X-Tec-C over a year's time."

"I have no intention of selling it," he says. "I'm going to go on for the international championship."

He explained that the championship is a group of demonstrations at some hot and custom shows across the country.

Before the international champion is named in April he plans to enter exhibits in Des Moines, Iowa.

designer. "We just played it by ear," he says.

He calculated that the car cost a $3,000 in cash to build and a new worth between $10,000 and $12,000 on the custom car market.

"Boys and Girls Together!"

Our Schools - - Foreign Students' View

It's those pinky little ponds, not the big ones, which remind foreign students they are away from home. But listening to the foreign exchange students in District 214 high schools one could easily believe they were more than comfortable in their new homes.

At the district's regular series of assemblies exchange students shared every conceivable story on their native lands and typical teen-agers. "The only difficulty I've found" said Cathy Kalmus, a black-eyed, vivacious student from Athens, Greece, "is those little words where you give them a different interpretation than the dictionary does."

Ruth Douglas, with whom Cathy lived at 1103 S. Euclid, Arlington Heights, agreed. "How do you explain to a teenager the difference between save, pass and hurt?" she asked. "It's almost as confusing as an egg that doesn't grow and cook."

RUTH ECHOED the opinion of all Americans participating in the two exchange programs at Dist. 214's five high schools when she said the experience was "irrevocable."

"Cathy and I fight just like sisters," she added. "Cathy is one of four students brought to the United States by the American Field Service."

Five other students, all from Latin America, are spending their "summer" vacation in Dist. 214 schools under a program of International Fellowship Inc.

Area high schools began co-operating with exchange programs in 1955 at Arlington High School. At the district's four other schools, were built.

"BUT AFTER I've gotten to meet people here I'm really enthusiastic. Two years ago we were so different at all from those who study in America," she said. "I hope by the end of the year to be a full member of your society," she declared.

Foreign students carry heavy work schedules in their schools than Americans, they agreed. Cathy said Greek students study 13 subjects a year. In San Francisco, Argentina, where Elvira Rodriguez attends school regularly, high schoolers study 14 subjects a year, seven of them each day between 7:30 a.m. and 1 p.m.

"WE SPEND all afternoon doing homework," she added. "But after that we go to the gym or to the library."

Elvira, 17, is studying Spanish, French, English, Latin, History and Natural Science. She is from Buenos Aires, Argentina.

UNNI BUSTAD, a poppy-haired teen at Whaling High School, said she would be permitted to study in Norway, a permit she had secured before moving to Arlington before meeting with Sandy Stevens in Palatine.

She said she "talks in Norwegian" because her mother is Norwegian. "I'm a little bit of a Norwegian," she said. "I'm a little bit of a Norwegian."

"I've already found out what you think of that in Norwegian," she said. "I've already found out what you think of that in Norwegian."

Ruth Douglas and David Palmieri, both at Arlington High School, discuss their introductory remarks to assembly where foreign exchange students were introduced to area high schools.

Foreign students were added to each school.

"Life in Athens is not that much different from life here," Cathy told an assembly of students at Arlington High which she attended.

"Athens is about the same size as Chicago - about 2 million people live there - but American cities are not as important as those in America," she said.

those all over the world. "I hope by the end of the year to be a full member of your society," she declared.

"If I believed what Hollywood (films) and the newspapers and about teens in America I'd never know how our America really is," she said.

In Greece, she said, boys and girls go to different schools. When she saw American youths of both sexes in school together, she was startled.

But she admitted it didn't bother her too much. "I hope by the end of the year to be a full member of your society," she declared.

Michael Padnos traveled all the way from Palatine, Illinois, to Arlington Heights and camped a cold for his new host.

GARDEN OF DEVOTION Beautiful Carrara glass tablet on which is inscribed the Lord's Prayer

a loving, living memorial for the ages.*

THE NEW CONCEPT—The superb sweep of sunlit gardens, the magnificent old trees standing guard, the rich bronze markers set even with the velvet leaves all make Memory Gardens a place like no other. This deeply needed new concept completely erases the old rivalry between tombstones, so sadly noted in obsolete cemeteries. Here—there's nothing to mar the quiet beauty, nothing to disturb the gentle serenity of a well-loved garden. No wonder young folks especially turn to Memory Gardens so thankfully—for their frequent visits now are always a loving consolation—never a cruel penalty.

THE NEW AND WISER WAY—Today, by reserving memorial property before need, woe and thought-fel adults are quick to realize they are protecting their own interests. It eliminates a costly last-minute choice, always made in grief, nearly always needlessly expensive. The right way, the only way, is to arrange for memorial property out of income—and never out of badly needed insurance or savings. Let us show you the Memory Garden Plan—wisely designed to meet your personal needs.

Shags Go Well With Everything

BY MARILYN HILFERS

Len has found a way to adapt polyester colorings to carpet fabrics. In new "Beau Arts," hard yards are dyed in different colors of approximately equal intensity, then glued together and tufted in a rough, shaggy texture. Georges Severin is remembered in art's most accomplished exponent of polychrome colorings.

Hints on How To Protect Your Carpets

Our seasonal January weather brings the spring and winter snow into the house throughout this year. May the new Christmas puppy or your holiday guests have already threatened your carpeting.

Place For Winter Fun

No Idle Time for Forest Preserves

Many people think that the Cook County Forest Preserves which fill the North Shore within view, are closed to winter activity.

According to Richard Ogilvie, president of the Cook County Board, this is far from the truth.

Ogilvie said that at least 50,000 people make use of the forest preserves four to six times each year and thousands of others enjoy the vastness of the open spaces to ski, ice fish, sled and hike. Some residents are fast becoming accustomed to spending Saturday and Sunday afternoons at Deer Grove, located near Arlington Heights, where two new toboggan slides are open, along with a warming shelter.

THE DEER Grove slide was opened in 1960 and has responded to its use with the six years it has been in operation. Other toboggan slides are located at Palms Woods, Round Woods and Jensen Park.

Each of the four slides is manned by a forest ranger when it is in use and there is a first aid station to take care of any emergencies.

Ogilvie said that while tobogganing receives the most use, it is impossible to estimate the number of people who make use of these preserves facilities in the winter.

"While our forest preserves receive their largest usage during the summer," Ogilvie said, "the winter does not represent a lull in the use of the facilities. The county is proud that it can provide such a comprehensive, year-around outdoor recreation program for its residents."

It's a long way to the top, but well worth the effort as these toboggan enthusiasts at the Deer Grove Forest Preserve slide sled out on blustery winter afternoons. The slide, operated by the Cook County Forest Preserve, is just north of Arlington Heights in Deer Grove Woods.

Harper College Hires 2 Dist. 214 Teachers

Two recent members of the faculty of Tremont High School District 214 have been accepted for employment at the faculty of William Henry Harper College.

The appointments of Kenneth D. Lattin, biology teacher at Forest View High School, and John K. Lattin, biology teacher at Forest View High School, were approved Wednesday night by the college board.

Two additional faculty appointments were made at the meeting. John H. Thompson, a teacher at Arlington Heights, is teaching at Harper College. Robert E. Lattin, Harper College president, said that a master's degree and 42 hours of advanced study, he has taught at Harper College for the past six years.

Kenneth holds a master's of fine arts degree and has had scholarship, including one from the Art Institute of Chicago.

THE THREE biology teachers will have annual salaries of $11,500, $10,500 and $10,500.

BOARD MEMBER Robert L. Johnson expressed concern over possible disturbance of good relationships between the college and local high schools, administrators because of the college's hiring of some of the local school districts' highly qualified faculty members.

Administrators from local high schools districts had advised him of their concerns over possible loss of teachers to the college. Dr. Lattin said that he would talk with those administrators to help so to decision that hiring of qualified teachers from these schools would create no tension with the high schools.

Harper College has not sought out at potential faculty members at local high schools. Dr. Lattin said.

FEBRUARY

Some Day

The Spokesman is the student newspaper for Whiting High School and is a typical of the few publications printed by teenagers who attend our schools in Ed. 214, Page 2 of The Spokesman edition on Jan. 13.

The Spokesman is called to our attention to publish columns written by Dr. Sports Editor Bob Cantelino. Bob has his own column in the paper, but he either lacks the nerve or is too busy to report the information on Page 2 in Whiting High.

The Spokesman handles reports that parents and school are not as qualified to administrate as we are. There is a school newspaper in the nation which is called the Spokesman and it is controlled in the reading rooms of high school students.

There is another very good reason why we are called to our attention to publish columns written by Dr. Sports Editor Bob Cantelino. Bob has his own column in the paper, but he either lacks the nerve or is too busy to report the information on Page 2 in Whiting High.

Parents and other people who are making the headlines for the Spokesman are so they have become truth reporters.

Editor Maryann Kenney of Mount Pleasant and her staff are doing an admirable job on The Spokesman.

Vantage Point

... by Jack Vandermeyn

At first, it's a little awkward to address Richard B. Ogilvie as "Mr. President."

It seems much more appropriate to greet the new president of the Cook County Board of Supervisors as "Mr. President."

Choosing his first press conference, Ogilvie was known to a man who had been a newsman for 30 years.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

As president of the Cook County Board, responsible for the administration of the county, Ogilvie is the largest county employee.

Ogilvie said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

He said that he would be the first to address the board.

FOR THURSDAY
AQUARIUS (Jan. 21-Feb. 19)—Face the facts. You should be able to solve all unsolved problems if you don't allow yourself to dream.
PIESCE (Feb. 20-Mar. 21)—Take care of the details of your work and the overall picture will take care of itself.
ARIES (Mar. 22-Apr. 20)—Your own attitude is the key factor. If it is more making use on something positive.
TAURUS (Apr. 21-May 21)—Don't sacrifice quality for quantity. The amount of work you do today is far less vital to you than the idea.
GEMINI (May 22-June 21)—A preferable day for either buying or selling anything. Look into the facts at your bank rather than any home affairs.
CANCER (June 22-July 23)—A day during which to stand against a minor health hazard. It especially concerns you if it seems making it come to pleasure.
LEO (July 24-Aug. 23)—Don't think in terms for the week to come. Now is the time for contacting those who can be of service to you if it seems making it come to pleasure.
VIRGO (Aug. 24-Sept. 23)—Don't trust another to do your work for you. Only you know precisely what it is you're trying to accomplish.
LIBRA (Sept. 24-Oct. 23)—Friends and he of more help than you imagine—mostly by saying out of your business. Tactfully suggest that they do just that.
SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 23)—A down-to-earth day that should easily be credited if it other day's work to tomorrow. The work is hard requires persistence.
SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 24-Dec. 23)—Don't open your school to include some minor work. The work is hard requires persistence.
CAPRICORN (Dec. 24-Jan. 23)—Finish a job begun yesterday before getting up to anything new. Take what others tell you about yourself with a grain of salt.

WE PLAYED OUR Wirey Woody

During the last of early season football, the Wirey Woody, a small, wiry, and fast player, was the only one on the field who was able to get past the defense. He was the only one who was able to get past the defense. He was the only one who was able to get past the defense.

Some Day

Why did everything get so quiet about the big news?

In the old days, when we were little kids, the news used to be very exciting. Now it's only what you expect.

A deep silence is good for people once every 100 years. It stops the production line of our society and one by one the robots fall out of place and people emerge as individuals.

A happy land, a smiling mother, the endurance of the mind and the death of our street-crawling ants.

enough to separate the necessary and unnecessary news in otherwise barren routine.

Suppose we had a big news? Suppose we had one like the 5-foot chessman on a New York street last year and the 10-foot chessman this year?

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

Our favorite story is the one who started the news.

Friday morning by preparing himself against the elements.

He put on an overcoat and then put on a raincoat over the coat.

He had socks on so he had to wear his shoes.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

... by Frank E. Von Arx

While he must, another shape approached from out of the storm.

Our weather looked bad enough, but this new arrival was an absolute zero.

It was completely frozen over.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

By the time he reached the chessman, the chessman had dropped down into his hole.

BE SURE..
Are you planning to buy or sell real estate?
If so, here's the most important fact you should know before making any kind of real estate transaction. It's this. No every real estate man or woman is a Realtor! You see, Realtors are professional real estate men and women who are members of the National Association of Real Estate Boards and the National Multiple Listing Service. These men and women are also members of the professional standards of an established order of ethics.
What does all this mean to you? Exactly this.
When you buy or sell a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is likely to bring - and able to market it for you as quickly as conditions warrant. When you buy or sell a Realtor is able to find property for you which suits your needs and pocketbook. A Realtor is ready and willing to put the interests of real estate buyers and sellers first.
At your service. Visit or phone him.

Arlington Heights, Illinois

Dear Mr. Blanton:

May we thank you for the excellent response we have received from our advertisement in your fine paper.

As a regular advertiser we have found that our sales have increased greatly since we started advertising in your fine shopping center.

Being a relatively new dealer in the area we have endeavored to give the best possible deals on all of our new cars, trucks and used cars, backed by a full year of factory trained technicians.

However, to make these facts known to our prospective customers we have looked for the best advertising medium we are now convinced that we have found it in Day Publications and Shopping Center.

Sincerely,

Al Harvey

REALTORS

Those Pledged to an Established Code of Ethics

BE SURE..

When you are buying or selling, you should know before making any kind of real estate transaction. It's this. The only real estate agent or woman in a Realtor's Office is a Realtor. The Realtor is a professional real estate agent and woman who are members of the National Association of Realtors and the North-West Suburban Board of Realtors. These men and women are subject to the professional standards of an established code of ethics. What does all this mean to you? Simply this: When you and ... a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is worth in terms of ... and able to market it for you in the best possible way. When you buy ... a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is worth in terms of ... and able to market it for you in the best possible way. When you buy ... a Realtor is able to tell you accurately what your real estate is worth in terms of ... and able to market it for you in the best possible way.
